

Now that Collins and De Valera are about to agree again, it behooves some other Irish patriot to start fighting. An Ireland without a war would be difficult to think of!!

EDUCATION BEST INVESTMENT FOR WORLD OF TODAY

Training of Youth More Important Than City
Works, Briggs.

IS TOBACCO OUR PET?

City Buys Luxuries and Stints Salaries of Public School Teachers.

Taking up the education of the boys and girls of America purely as a business matter, Dr. Thomas H. Briggs of Columbia University New York City, told the Lions Club today at noon that no other basis, than as an investment, can we justify the schools and the money expended for them. As an investment the schools and thus the education of the youth of the land is more important than building streets and improving cities otherwise.

The United States is the only country in the world which is under-estimating to give the coming generations more than an elemental training. In this country, the state compels the citizens to spend a certain amount for education in order that the state will prosper and be a better place in which to live and be happy, he said.

The speaker regretted that Oklahoma had defeated the law, referring to the repeal of section 12-A of the constitution, which would have placed the burden of the education of the youth upon all the state instead of upon individuals.

Public School Threatened.
There are efforts being made today to undermine and destroy the public school systems, he said. At least two organized efforts along this line are evident, though the speaker did not specify what organizations the two are. There is also a tendency for big taxpayers, when hard financial times come, to rebel against taxation. We must see school expenditures as a long time investment.

We can do what we want to do. We are able to pay for anything we actually want. In 1913 we would have rebelled against putting up enough money to drain all the swamps and irrigate all the deserts, but we did this when a war emergency arose.

Dr. Briggs, in commenting upon the reduction of teachers' salaries in Ada, said that if he were given one-third of the money spent for tobacco in Ada in one year, he would run the schools three years without reducing salaries. It would take the United States sixteen hours, sixteen minutes and nineteen seconds, paying $66,080 a second, to pay for the past wars. It would take about half as much time to pay for the wars we have prepared for in the future. It would take about one second to pay all the expenses of education the national government has ever made. The total cost of all the public education in the country since 1780 to this time is only two-thirds as much as was spent one year during the war.

Dr. Briggs, who is a world-wide authority on the junior high school, is delivering a series of lectures at the East Central College this week.

Big "Reception" Committee.
The meeting today was well attended, due in part to the size of the reception committee. It was announced that the committees from the various civic bodies would meet with the city commissioners this afternoon to work out plans for the tourists' camp ground.

The club voted to send C. E. Cunningham, president, to the national meeting at Little Rock the last of this month.

Sam Schienberg announced that the merchants were planning in conjunction with the Ada Athletic Association, to have a picnic here July 4. A free barbecue, free coffee and free entertainments are to be featured.

Mob Demands Negro

HIGHPOINT, N. C., June 6.—Quiet prevailed here early today after a night of intense excitement during which a mob estimated at more than 1,500 men surrounded the city jail for the announced purpose of lynching a negro held here as a suspect in the attack on an 18-year-old white girl near her home at Thomasville yesterday. The mob dispersed after Chief of Police Blackwelder urged them not to resort to violence, and the negro was taken to Greensboro for safe keeping. Two other negroes are held at the local jail, but Blackwelder said this morning that he did not believe any one of the three was the man wanted.

WAS HEROINE OF WAR

"Aire Fairy" Stage Idol Is Awarded Signal Honor
By Marine Service.

(By the Associated Press)

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 6.—Funeral services for Mrs. Lillian Russell Moore, who died at her home early today, will be held in the Trinity Protestant Christian church Thursday afternoon. The body will then be entombed here until a suitable mausoleum can be erected by her husband Alexander P. Moore, publisher of the Pittsburgh Leader.

During the day many telegrams of condolence reached Mr. Moore and other members of the family, coming from all parts of the country. They came not only from leaders in the theatrical world in which Mrs. Moore as "Aire Fairy" Lillian, the operatic star, was so striking a figure, but from government officials and leaders in society, who were pleased to number her among their friends.

A Real Sergeant.

Among the messages which came early were some from persons who had been associated with her during the war in patriotic activities. Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, talked over long distance telephone, and referred to her as "Sergeant Russell." For such she was by right of an order issued by Major General Barnett, when he was commanding the United States Marine corps headquarters and made her a sergeant. She recruited and obeyed orders just as did the other soldiers on recruit duty and at the end of the war was discharged from service.

This gave her the right to a membership in the American Legion, which she joined.

Miss Russell, who was born in Clifton, Ia., December 4, 1861, and made her first appearance on the stage in 1879, was from that time assured of success. She starred at New York theatres, becoming a member of the Weber and Fields stock company, and was prima donna in McCall's Opera company.

BONDSMEN MUST PAY OLD SCORE

$2,000 Hanging Over From Old Administration is Demanded.

The police department was getting a firmer hold today on a problem of considerable proportions which included the adoption of a new plan for accepting bonds and collection about $2,000 in past due bonds left over by the old administration, according to Wick Adair, chief of police.

Already steps have been taken to collect the old bonds and fines. It was intimated that some bondsmen who went security for fines under the old administration would be given an opportunity to answer to the new administration soon.

Mayor Fisher, municipal judge, said today that he and his police force had worked out a policy whereby no person would be accepted on a bond for fine assessed in police court unless said person was known to be able to pay the amount of the bond when it was due. Prisoners who could not get such persons on bonds would be required to continue their "visit" with the city. He said these "guests" would be valuable help at street work.

Chief Adair announced today that bonds were being made good which have been signed since the new administration went into office. There are several bonds out which have not expired he said, but all now due are being paid. No instance was mentioned where a man was released because he could not pay his fine at the time his period of grace expires. Chief Adair said that additional equipment for uniforms for his men had been ordered and that he expected to keep all but two of them in uniform. Two plainclothesmen probably will be kept on duty at night. He also has received a new silver chief of police badge.

FORD FOR PRESIDENT ORGANIZATION FORMED

(By the Associated Press)

DETROIT, June 6.—Permanent organization of "Ford for President" clubs and naming of nominees to ask Mr. Ford to become an independent candidate for president, is planned by the manufacturer's town-people, who have called a meeting at Dearborn, his home town. Mr. Ford has not publicly announced his attitude.

A number of his friends declare he has indicated he would enter the race should the public desire.

ADA U. C. V. CAMP CHOOSES MEN TO GO TO RICHMOND

J. A. Weldon and Sam H. Hargis were elected Sunday to represent William Byrd camp, United Confederate Veterans, at the annual national encampment of the organization at Richmond, Va., June 20, 21 and 22. They will join delegates from other camps and form an Oklahoma detail to the meeting, it is expected.

The local camp has accepted an invitation of Holdenville Confederate veterans to meet with them next Sunday in a public assembly for which a special program is being arranged, according to Capt. A. M. Crow, local camp commander. All veterans in and around Ada are making plans to attend and friends are invited to make the trip with them.

May 30 was the date fixed by a resolution passed Sunday as official Decoration Day for William Byrd camp.

VALUATION OVER COUNTY TO FALL

Assessor Estimates Slump
in County To Amount
To $1,000,000.

With the assessment of personal property in Pontotoc county practically completed, a decrease in this item for both the county and city is now in sight according to a statement authorized Tuesday by the county assessor's office.

Valuation of personal property in the county will show a slump of approximately $1,000,000 and in the city a decrease of about $200,000, figures compiled by Assessor Nick Heard indicate.

Details of the new assessment are being completed this week and a definite statement will be available soon, it is expected.

Last year, personal property in the county was given in at $18,912,728 and in the city at $5,506,249. Rough estimates made Tuesday by the assessor's office placed county valuation this year at about $17,900,000 and city personal valuation at $5,300,000. Lower valuation on stock has reduced the county figure, it is understood, and in the city the estimates have been generally lower.

BIDS FOR PAVING CLOSE TOMORROW

Contract for S. Townsend Project May Be Let
On Thursday.

City commissioners will close at midnight Wednesday night all bids for the paving project on South Townsend avenue. Up to noon today no bids had been filed, although three contractors had stated they would have proposals prepared before noon tomorrow.

The project calls for the paving and improving of South Townsend avenue from the south boundary of Twelfth street to the south boundary of Townsend to the west boundary of Stockton avenue on West Seventeenth street.

Concrete will be used and the work will be similar to that on North Mississippi avenue, recently completed. Several attempts have been made to pave Townsend avenue but until now efforts have met defeat. City commissioners said there was no doubt the work would be completed this time.

Durant Bid Expected.

Two Ada contractors and one from Durant already have signified their intention of bidding on the work. They have indicated, commissioners said, that bids are under preparation today and will be presented Wednesday. Commissioners will open the bids Thursday and after examining them, will announce the successful contractor. Work will start within 30 days from the time of the awarding of the contract.

It is the opinion of city officials that with no misfortune, the paving project should be completed before summer is ended. The proposition of paving one block on South Broadway is progressing, it was said.

Three Negroes Held On Larceny Charge; Chickens Are Found

Willie Smith, Fleet Clark and Eli Clark, negroes, were bound over to the district court under $1000 bond each Monday by Justice of Peace H. J. Brown on a grand larceny charge in connection with the alleged stealing of ten chickens from County Clerk R. H. Erwin. They were unable to make bail.

The trio, it was charged, after stealing the hens, sold them to a local produce house. They were found there several days ago and returned to their owner.

Bonus Up Thursday

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Formal presentation of the soldier's bonus bill to the senate on Thursday is now planned by Chairman McCumber of the senate finance committee. The bill will be accompanied by the usual printed report. Senator McCumber expects to speak briefly on the subject.

The measure will be sent to the senate calendar to await agreement to call it up. Little pressure appears for an early consideration of the bill. Some republican leaders believe it will not be taken up until after the administration tariff bill is cleared.

JEAN DAY FACES ARMY BOARD FOR QUIZZING TODAY

Oklahoma City Attorney To Retell the Story of Killing Beck.

IN SECRET HEARING

Federal Probers To Clear
Up Finally All Angles
of Mystery Case.

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 6.—Jean P. Day, prominent oil man and attorney of this city, today went before a special army board of inquiry and told the story of the slaying of Lieut. Col. Paul Ward Beck, commandant of Post Field Oklahoma Flying station, whom Day killed in the Day home here on the early morning of April 4.

Day was accompanied only by his lawyer.

All proceedings in the investigation are being kept secret and the only indication as to how long the hearing might continue was given today in a statement by a member of the board who said that several more witnesses were to be interrogated after Day's testimony had been taken. The board was appointed by a special order of Secretary of War Weeks to make a more complete report of the case than that submitted the war department by an army board from Fort Sill, Okla., which sat during a court inquiry into Beck's death here shortly after the tragedy.

At the coroner's hearing, Day testified that he entered his home to find the army officer, a close friend of the family, making improper overtures to Mrs. Day. He procured a revolver and struck Beck on the head, he said, and although he did not intend to kill him, the weapon exploded, burying a bullet in the officer's brain. Mrs. Day corroborated her husband's story of the affair on the stand.

The coroner's jury found that Day was justified in killing Beck and recommended that no charges be filed.

Love Letters Introduced.

A new angle was injected into the case during the examination of Day this afternoon when, it was learned, Day's attorneys introduced several letters which were alleged to have been received by Beck from different women. The action came as a surprise to the board, it was said, as it was understood Day would not undertake to develop a further defense. No indication was given to what the letters contained.

Frank Afner, police captain, who went to the Day home on the morning of the slaying, was subjected to a short questioning during the morning session.

When the board recessed at noon it became known that the body would visit the Day residence this afternoon and question Mrs. Day. She was expected to repeat her testimony given at the coroner's inquest in which she said that Lieutenant Colonel Beck, while alone with her, had attempted to take her in his arms, exclaiming: "Girl, girl, who must coo to my room tonight."

Beck was their guest at an informal entertainment the night of April 3 and had remained with Mrs. Day while Mr. Day took other parties who attended the affair home in his motor car.

It was when he returned to the house that he said he found Beck in the act of assaulting Mrs. Day.

VOTING IS SLOW IN EARLY HOURS; RULE CUTS MANY

Only Husband Is Eligible Unless Property Is Separated.

CARS SERVE WARDS

424 Votes Cast at 3 p. m.
But Late Afternoon to Bring Stragglers.

Victory for the $110,000 bond issue proposed by local civic organizations for the construction here of a memorial convention hall was being predicted this afternoon by supporters of the measure as voting showed signs of revival after an unusually light ballot this morning.

A summer shower early in the day kept all polls idle for a time but shortly before noon there was a perceptible increase in interest. The lunch hour brought other voters out to cast their opinion on the issue, which is rated by city officials as one of the most important that has been before the community for years.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon only 298 votes had been cast in all wards. Ward 1 was leading with 105 voted but Ward 4 was a close contender with 101. Wards 2 and 3 had voted 46 each.

Shortly before 3 o'clock, 424 votes had been cast. They were distributed as follows: Ward 1, 156; Ward 2, 76; Ward 3, 62; and Ward 4, 130.

Counting is simple. Counting of results tonight will be comparatively a simple matter, it was said. Results of the election are expected to be known by 9 o'clock allowing clerks a margin of two hours for tabulating results. This depends, however, upon the interest manifested late in the day.

Light voting this morning was explained by city officials as being due partly to the fact that only property owners were eligible to cast a ballot. This was followed by the announcement that wives were not qualified to vote unless they held property separate from that of their husbands, in their own names.

About forty cars plied all wards of the city throughout the day offering their services to those who wished transportation to the polls.

Officials of the American Legion declared their confidence at noon today that the bonds would pass.

BEST MIXERS AT COLLEGE GIVEN PRIZES TODAY

Students attending the annual student mixer, held on the college athletic field last evening, were afforded what was termed today one of the most interesting entertainments promised for the summer session. About one thousand students were present.

Beginning at 7:30 the students began arriving. Under the direction of committee leaders the program was carried out. Several dances were given by students in physical education class.

The chief event on the program was a hand shaking contest.

Prizes were awarded by local business house to contest winners this morning as follows:

Jana Beavers of Garvin county, perfume from Hensler-Smith's drug store; Mary Patton of Hughes county, ivory ink stand from Shaw's department store; Mrs. W. J. Wolford of Okfuskee county, face powder from Gwin-Mays Drug Co.; Minnie Cox of Pontotoc county, four theatre tickets to McSwain theatre; Claud Harris of Seminole county, gold pencil from Coon's Jewelry store; Laura Tarbox of Pottawatomie county, handkerchief from the Model; Jane Gannis of Okfuskee county, hammock from Coffman; Bobbitt and Sparks company; Dibble Dennis of Johnson county, pair of silk hose from Burk's Style Shop; Vonelle Butler of McClain county, $1.50 worth of cold drinks at Wozenrath's Drug store; Lola Faye King of Arkansas, pair of white silk hose from Simpson's; Helen Erwin of Murray county, box of candy from Palm Garden; Thelma Jacob of Coal county, box of handkerchiefs from Stevens-Wilson Co.

Refreshments were served at the mixer.

BIBLE THOUGHT OF TODAY

WHY WILL YE DIE?—Cast away from you all your transgression, whereby ye have transgressed: and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye. —Ezekiel 18:31, 32.

COTTON PRICES AND THE FUTURE.

Cotton will reach higher price levels during the coming year, in the opinion of W. Irving Bullard, Boston banker and cotton man, according to a dispatch from Boston. The dispatch says:

"W. Irving Bullard, vice president of the Merchants National Bank of Boston and treasurer of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, believes that unless the weather is unusually favorable to growing during the next three months cotton will cross 25 cents a pound. Following his return from a trip through the cotton States he reports that Southern opinion is unanimous that cotton will sell higher."

It is a new thing to have predictions of 25-cent cotton come from such a source. It is predicated upon a very short crop, to be sure, and the crop will be short enough. But this feature of the South's situation will not be an unmixed evil. It means that we shall have reasonable prosperity during the next eight or ten months, and that we shall enter next planting season with the certainty of a fair price for any sized crop we can raise. If the South can raise a normal crop of cotton next year and market it sanely it will wipe out all of the South's debts and bring in an era of unprecedented prosperity and progress. And meantime there is a period of reasonable prosperity just ahead.—Fort Worth Record.

PLUCKING THE AMERICAN GEESSE

A report from Berlin says American tourists are being well trimmed in Germany. A case in point was that of a woman who had been under treatment of a noted physician for sometime, but who finally decided to go to a mineral resort. Her physician gave her a sealed envelope which he said described her case to a doctor he recommended at the springs. Her curiosity got the better of her and she tore open the envelope to read this note: "Dear colleague: I am sending you a golden goose I have plucked. Do you likewise."

GOOD FOR ROFF.

Last week Roff citizens by an overwhelming vote granted a gas franchise to a company that will supply this pressing need. Not only will this be of untold benefit to the ordinary householder, but the citizens hope to secure a glass factory. Roff has one of the largest deposits of high grade glass sand in the country and with cheap fuel there is no reason why it might not be turned into glassware right at the pit's mouth instead of shipping it to other places as is being done now. Roff is surrounded by a good agricultural country and with a nice fat factory payroll things will pick up there.

Reports from the money centers indicate that people who became frightened some months ago and put their money away in a sock or tin can have come around to the notion that after all the nation is not headed for the rocks and are turning some of their cash loose either in enterprises of in the form of loans. Hoarded money draws no interest and a year or two of this was enough to convince the frightened ones that their scare was all for nothing; that they had only been seeing ghosts and, as everybody knows, there "ain't no such thing as ghosts," except in the minds of the timorous.

Conceit has caused the ruin of many a promising career, but lack of confidence has also claimed its share of victims. The conceited one may over-estimate his own ability and the extent of his knowledge, but at least he has his wagon hitched to some sort of a star, while the other fellow is afraid he can't effect the hitching act the first throw of his lasso and somebody will laugh at him. Certainly the fellow who goes about with an air of apologizing to the world for the fact that he must encumber a portion of the earth's surface for a few years will get little sympathy in his failure.

Clouds of mosquitoes flying over Chicago caused spectators to think they were caused by fires and alarms were turned in. Evidently the windy city is trying to capture the laurels from New Jersey.

The fellow who began life with the idea that the world owes him a living is still waiting for it to make a payment on the bill. The soft snap he dreamed about has not shown up yet.

While it is true that a soft answer may turn away wrath, an exchange observes that it has also got many an unsuspecting girl caught in the web of an unfortunate marital mixup.

KILKENNY CATS

The Forum of the Press

The Meat in the Bonus Cocoon.

(McAlester (News-Capital))
The bonus question isn't a political one, and it shouldn't be used in political campaigns," said Harold MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, in Minneapolis Wednesday.

Commander MacNider is entirely right in this sentiment, and he assures us that the sentiment reflects the feeling that pervades the rank and file of the Legion. The bonus, or adjusted compensation, issue should be settled by congress without thought of partisan politics and without regard to the possible bearing of the settlement on the outcome of the primary and regular election this year.

The question is to be contemplated as essentially and fundamentally one of principle and national policy. It should have been approached and handled from the start on that basis, says the Tribune of that city but unhappily that has not been the case in Washington. If it had been so dealt with there is not the slightest reason in the world why it should not have been acted on finally by Congress long ago.

Not in so many words, perhaps, but in thought and purpose, Congress has let political considerations enter into the conception of the legislation and into the terms of the bill. It is not to say that all members of House and Senate have approached the question in this spirit, but it is to say that many of them have been unable or unwilling to divorce from their judgments the thought of what may happen at the polls as the sequel of this kind of vote or that kind of vote on a general soldier bonus."

It lies upon each individual member of congress to consult his own conscience, and in so far as he is able the collective conscience of his constituents, as to whether the government, alias the people, is obligated to the service men in such manner as the bonus bill suggests, and then to consult his own judgment as to whether the bill is properly drawn to meet the legislative purposes, and also whether now is the time to assume the obligation. Concerning this matter of time the thing to be considered is the welfare of the whole country.

"Acting solely on these tests, it should have been possible for congress to dispose of the bonus question in short order. The problem is easy enough when stripped, as it should be, of all extraneous and irrelevant considerations."

Costs Are Declining.

(Fort Worth Record)
Railroad employees throughout the United States have raised a hue and cry against the order of the labor board reducing their wages. They claim it means not only a minimum standard of living below and yet known, but that the new rates will not provide the absolute essentials for families of wage earners. And they have a good basis for their contention unless railroad charges and prices of goods decline in proportion to the new cost schedule.

Between the middle of last January and the middle of last February the price of bread declined in nearly all the large cities of the country, the decline averaging between 1 and 2 cents a pound retail necessarily based on some decline in the wholesale price. In one city the retail price declined 3 cents.

The wholesale price of bread in Fort Worth was lowered by only one baker, the retail price of his bread being reduced one cent to keep place with his reduction. In an advertisement in The Record he tells why he was able to sell bread cheaper than heretofore. If bakers throughout the country and all manufacturers lower the price of their products in keeping with lower costs, the contention of the railroad workers that their living costs are higher than their earnings will be nullified.

This baker in his advertisement shows that flour during the first three months of this year cost $3.26 less than for the first six months of last year; sugar cost $1.27 less per 100 pounds; milk cost $7 less per 100 pounds; lard cost the same and wax paper (for wrapping) cost $3.25 less per 100 pounds. On May 1 of this year labor took a 10 per cent reduction over last year, and flour is quoted today at $6.50 a barrel as against $8.25 this time last year. Wheat dropped 8 cents per bushel this week, so flour may go yet lower.

If the price of wheat declines and the flour manufacturer reduces his prices according, if refined sugar costs less and the dairyman gets less for his milk, it should be possible to make and sell bread for less than when prices were higher. Many bakers throughout the land and one baker in Fort Worth says it is. And if other foods and food-stuffs are reduced in price in keeping with the lower costs of production and manufacture the lower wages that appear to have entered into virtually all lines, not ordered for railroad workers solely, will enable the wage earner to maintain his previous standard of living and get some of the luxuries of life along with the essentials.

RUSSIAN ENVOY READY TO QUIT IF U. S. WILLS

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The matter of further recognition of the Russian ambassador to the United States appointed during the Kerensky regime will be considered here June 30. He has been notified of this decision by the American government by Secretary Hughes.

This was in reply to a communication by the ambassador in which he said that his chief function in recent months had been in handling matters of property interests growing out of the war and this is now about completed, hence his willingness to retire if his presence was considered embarrassing to the United States government.

The correspondence published today was dated late in April and was the result of Senator Borah's challenge of the right of the ambassador to claim to represent Russia. This led him to question whether his continuance as ambassador would best serve the interests of all concerned. The secretary's reply was the culmination of charges of irregularities in the use of funds by the ambassador.

Novelty in Decoration Summer Dress Feature

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN

ONE needs more than a man's imagination to visualize the attractive possibilities of this dress of fine cotton crepe in cream color, beaded with rows of yellow beads, and then decorated with yellow, orange, and brown beads. The waist-line decoration is further enhanced by a drooping brown velvet-ribbon bow. One does not analyze, just admires so pretty a dress; yet, one must realize how the beads with their weight will make the dress more wearable and becoming.

The color variation takes the dress entirely out of the ordinary and the handwork makes it a precious dress to possess. Yet it is as simple as it's attractive, the dress itself being straight in regular night-dress fashion. The side panels of the skirt give soft draperies there. A strip of material is concealed underneath the waist-line, to which the fulness is carefully secured, and which makes possible an individually becoming line so frequently desired.

NEWS NOTES FROM MOVIELAND

New studio sketches from Hollywood, by Hal Probascio.

The title of this, if it were to have a title, should be "Further Adventures in Movieland," by Hal Probascio. This group of sketches, which just arrived from Hollywood, shows Probascio's impression of some of the most famous of our masculine screen stars.

What was left of the artist's heart, after meeting the beautiful leading ladies of the cinema, Jackie Coogan captured. Little Jackie Coogan is a real kid, according to Probascio, and is working his head off in "Oliver Twist." He seems to like it, however, and he surely can keep the entire froce at his studio busy watching him to see that he doesn't fall down and break his neck or ruin a set. Batting old tin cans around was his favorite sport on the day of probascio's visit.

Colleen Moore, the sweet, winsome miss with an Irish name and Italian girl in "Rupert Hughes' "Bitterness of Sweets." She is a California booster and one excellent reason for a visit to that state of boosters.

In the words of Probascio, "Mabel Norman is a peach." Like two old cronies, both being Mecken and Nathan fans, they talked books, books, books, and then Mabel posed for Probascio in her Mexican outfit which she wears in "Suzanna."

If you think Buster Keaton wears a frozen face all the time you are greatly mistaken, for he doesn't at all. He looks just like the sketch, full of animation. He is just as funny off the screen as on and has a host of reminiscences from his days in vaudeville which started when he was three years old.

Doug Fairbanks as Robinhood is more dynamic than ever. Doug never stands still long enough to pose for anyone. If you get him you have to get him on the jump. Even if he does stand still you do not take out your pencil, for he looks as if he were going to leap twenty feet into the air any minute. By the time he has done a few dote vaults, high jumps, boxes, and wrestled a bit, run a mile around the studio and run here and there at the back and call of a cameraman, a property man and an interviewer, you give up in despair and ask your editor to run his photograph with the caption, "He never looks like this, but would if he stood still long enough."

They Are Mourned.

Scores of friends and acquaintances in the film world attended the funeral services for Rabbi Myers, who was killed in an automobile accident recently. Rabbi Myers, father of Carmel Myers, was a friend of the industry, a leader in church and charitable circles and his death is mourned by many.

Maxwell Garger, one of the leading directors of the Metro Motion Pictures Corporation, was found dead recently in his drawing room on a Pennsylvania train, bound for Chicago. Mr. Garger was on his way to Hollywood, Cal., after a trip to New York, and papers in his possession indicated he contemplated moving his family to New York.

WAR'S TRAGEDY HEAVIEST NOW

Suffering of Veterans Is Worse Than Death in Trenches, Belief.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 5.—The worst casualties suffered by American soldiers during the world war are just beginning to show themselves. By contrast troops wounded on the battlefields are lucky compared with the greatly increased casualties of today, according to C. J. Harris, a official of the American Legion's national headquarters here, in charge of ex-soldier claims against the government.

There is an average of two ex-soldier suicides a day, Mr. Harris declares following a study of reports. These men, Mr. Harris finds, almost without exception were in the battle lines in France. These soldiers, the Legion official contends, were discharged by army doctors as normal. Since the war, however, these men, struggling for a living, have undergone mental anguish that their war-racked nerves could not withstand.

Treat Mental Patients.

There are two ways in which the legion hopes to minister to these mental cases and to prevent their increase. Mr. Harris points out. The Langley bill, now law, provides $17,000,000 for the construction of new hospitals. The larger portion of this money is to be spent in creating facilities for treating the neuropsychiatric, mental patients. The Legion is also preparing to petition congress to liberalize the present Sweet bill. This bill now makes it impossible for an ex-soldier to obtain government treatment for war injuries which show up more than two years after discharge from service. The legion contends that it might easily be five years after discharge before injurious physical and mental effects of his service would appear.

Mr. Harris further charges that the United States Veterans Bureau, in charge of the treatment and rehabilitation of the World War's disabled, is in error concerning the gravity of the neuro-psychiatric sufferers. A recent veterans bureau report shows that the bureau's total capacity for treatment of neuro-psychiatric cases is 6,039 beds.

24,506 Are Insane.

Mr. Harris says he has reports from Legion liaison representatives in each of the bureau's 14 regional districts to show that in four of the 14 districts alone there are 24,506 mental cases on record. These four districts include West Virginia, District of Columbia, Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Maryland, Florida, Georgia, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Washington, Oregon and Idaho. Of the number 2,119 are being treated in government hospitals and 996 in contract institutions.

The veterans bureau reports but 4,628 service men in the entire United States undergoing treatment for mental disorder in government institutions.

The legion is asking the co-operation of the public in its effort properly to protect post-bellum shell-shock cases. Mr. Harris says that friends and relatives should be quick to report an ex-soldier who shows signs of mental disorder, and to induce him to submit to an examination and treatment.

TO LAUNCH NEW NATIONAL AUTOMOBILE ASSOCIATION

EUGENE STUART-LOUISVILLE. CHARLES C. JONES-COLUMBUS. M. E. NOBLET-INDIANAPOLIS. RICHARD H. LEE-CHICAGO. FRED H. CALEY-CLEVELAND. JUDGE WALTER D. MEALS-CLEVELAND.

A new national organization of motorists to combat automobile thievery, to fight discriminatory taxation on the motor vehicle and to promote a transcontinental system of highways will be launched at a convention in Chicago June 18 and 19.

Twelve states already represented in an older affiliation will be joined by automobile clubs from other states in a nation-wide body to be known as the National Automobile Association. The movement had its birth in St. Louis less than a month ago and so eager are automobile owners of the country for an active, protective organization that scores of other automobile clubs are sending delegates to the Chicago conference for formally organizing the new association. Plans for the conference, which will be held at the Congress Hotel in Chicago, are in charge of George H. Bird, president of the Illinois State Automobile association, 2300 South Michigan avenue, Chicago.

Street Improvement District No. 10. West Seventeenth Street from the West line of Broadway to the east line of Townsend Avenue, in the City of Ada, Oklahoma.

The cost of such improvements on said avenue and street, including street intersections and alley crossings shall be borne and paid by the owners of property benefited by such improvements upon the said avenue and street hereby ordered to be improved.

The entire cost of said improvements on said portions of such avenue and street shall be separately apportioned to and levied and assessed against the abutting property liable to assessment therefor, and the owners thereof, in accordance with the provisions of the State Laws of Oklahoma governing the same.

Bids shall be submitted upon proposal sheets to be furnished by the City Engineer, and each bid must be accompanied by a certified check on some solvent bank in the State of Oklahoma, or a satisfactory Bidder's Bond in the amount of approximately five (5) percent of the total cost of the work based upon the Contractor's bid. All bids are required to be placed on file in the office of the City Clerk for inspection for forty-eight (48) hours after opening before the award or rejection of bids can be made.

The contract will be awarded for each district to the bidder submitting the most advantageous bid therefor, who will undertake and perform the work and furnish the materials according to the plans and specifications contained in the resolution of the Board of Commissioners declaring in each instance the necessity of, and providing for the improvement of the said avenue and street. A copy of such resolutions will be furnished to bidders upon application therefor at the office of the City Clerk.

The Contractor shall receive for the above work, including printing and appraising, Street Improvement Bonds at their par value against the abutting property according to Sections 608 to 646, Article XII, Chapter 10 of the Revised Laws of the State of Oklahoma, 1910, and amendments thereto.

Wauseon, Ohio.—"My daughter always had backache and leg-ache at certain periods and could not be on her feet at those times. We read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound doing girls so much good so she began to take it. That is two years ago and she is a different girl since then able to do any work she wants to do—although she is still careful not to do heavy work—and so well and strong. We recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers with ailing daughters, and I give you permission to publish this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. A. M. BUKK-HOLDER, Route No. 2, Box 1, Wauseon, Ohio.

Something out of balance will affect the finest clock, causing it to gain or lose. The proper adjustment made, all is well. So it is with women. Some trouble may upset you completely.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct the cause of the trouble and discontinue the symptoms will disappear as they did in the case of Mrs. Burkholder's daughter.

MOTHERS—it is worthy of your confidence.

They Overlooked the Diamonds

There is a modern flippancy to the effect that, "what you don't know won't hurt you." It is also a fallacy. For instance:

The farmers of Kimberley were a disgusted, disheartened lot. They said the soil was too rocky to earn them a living. Some of them left. Others died poor.

And all the time their children were playing with diamonds.

But the farmers didn't know. They thought the price-less gems were pebbles.

Don't be like those Kimberley farmers. Know!

Don't seek opportunity in some distant place and overlook the diamonds that are daily within your grasp. Know!

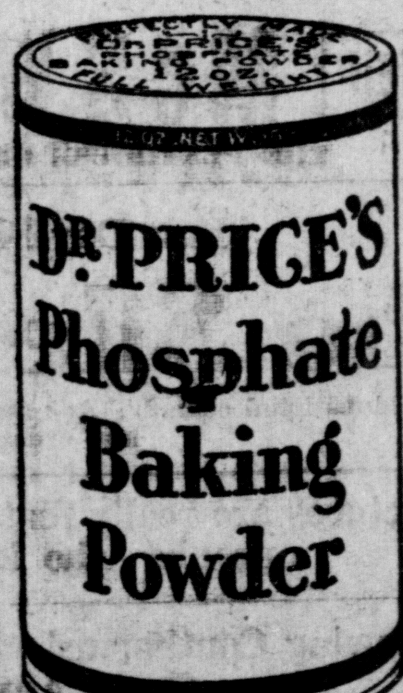

Advertising is a mine of opportunity. It tells of values you wouldn't know about if it were not there to guide you.

The secret of economical buying is information. The man or woman who is best informed is the one who buys to best advantage.

Hoover Is Assured That Price of Coal Must Take Advance

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 6.—Secretary Hoover has completed his conference with the National Retailers Association of Coal Dealers regarding the holding down of coal prices during the period of the strike. The co-operation of the association was pledged yesterday by Roderick Stephens, New Jersey, but he told Secretary Hoover that in spite of their efforts the retail price of coal was certain to advance.

Flag at Half Mast On June 9 in Honor Of Fred Galbraith

(By the Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, O., June 6.—The American flag will be at half mast on July 9 on every American Legion clubhouse in memory of Col. Fred W. Galbraith, who died on that date one year ago, according to notice which has been sent out to every American Legion post in the country by Lemanuel News, national adjutant of the legion upon suggestion of the members of Robert E. Bentley post, of Cincinnati, of which Colonel Galbraith was a member.

Galbraith was killed in an automobile accident at Indianapolis while attending a conference of Legion officials. "He died in active service," said Adjutant Bentley, "and was cut off in the midst of literally untiring efforts for the nation and the Legion. In Past Commander Galbraith the Legion honors one of the truest and finest leaders of America—his untiring. He died too soon."

"BOOTLEGGING" EXHIBITS IN "REPORTED MISSING"

"Reported Missing," starring Owen Moore, which has been announced as the attraction for the American theatre Thursday, hasn't anything to do with bootlegging. It is interesting to know, however, that the little fishing vessel which was used in shooting the shipwreck scenes is none other than the famous Nancy Hanks, which caused the internal revenue officers so much trouble in the illicit liquor trade before she was run out of business and turned to more legitimate pursuits.

Lectures by Dr. Thomas Briggs, dean of education of the Columbia University, are attracting attention. The lectures started yesterday.

UNCLE SAM IS INVESTIGATING MARITAL AFFAIRS OF POPULAR MOVIE STAR TRIO

Above, left to right: Winifred Hudnut or Mrs. Rodolph Valentino No. 2, Mary Charleston of Mrs. Henry Walthall No. 2. Below, Rodolph Valentino, Frank Mayo and Henry Walthall.

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—(Special)—While federal officials here are investigating the circumstances surrounding the recent marriages of Rodolph Valentino, Frank Mayo
and Henry Walthall movie fans are interested in the report that Winifred Hudnut, whose marriage to Rodolph in Mexico, Southern California, a few days ago started the new flurry in movie circles, was the object of a nation-wide search six years ago when she disappeared
from New York.

Her friends in Chicago have revealed the fact that her real name,
before her marriage, was Winifred De Wolfe. When as Miss De Wolfe
she disappeared in 1916 two senators, a Russian ambassador and scores of detectives aided in the search for her. She was found after months of search with the dancing troupe of Theodore Kosloff. She was using the name Vera Fredov.

Frank M. Sturgis, in charge of the department of justice bureau here, is giving Valentino's marital jaunt into Mexico the once over.

At the same time District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine and his assistants are investigating the Valentino wedding and also those of Henry Walthall and Frank Mayo.

In connection with the Mann act complaints Woolwine will go to Palm Springs to look over the hotel
register where Rodolph Valentino
and his bride, Winifred Hudnut, are alleged to have stayed after the ceremony.

Valentino was married before he received his final divorce papers from his wife, Jean Acker. Mayo is believed to have been married at Tia Juana under the same circumstances, before receiving his final decree from his first wife.

He married Dagmar Godowsky, daughter of Dr. Leopold Godowsky, noted pianist.

Henry Walthall married Miss Mary Charleston five days after he had been granted a divorce from Mrs. Isabelle Harrington in 1918.
They were married at Crown Point.
Judge H. H. Loring, Valparaiso, Ind., pronounced Walthall's second marriage illegal.

CAR MEN SUFFER WAGE REDUCTION

Cut of 7 to 9 Cents an Hour
Ordered Tuesday For Repair Crews.

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 6.—Over the strong protest of the three labor members of the railroad board, a reduction of 7 cents and 9 cents per hour was ordered on workers in car repair shops. This order affects 400,000 men. The new wage reduction will save the roads a total of $57,669,347, following the $50,000-000 cut ordered on the maintenance of way laborers last week.

The order becomes effective July 1 at the same time the scale already set for the others take effect.

The minority labor members stated that the majority decision was made without consideration of the human needs of the ones affected and charges that it failed to carry out the purpose for which the board was created. The protest was signed by Elbert O. Wharton, Marcus Hen-niman and Albert Phillips, the three labor representatives.

Discuss Wage Slash.

CINCINNATI, O., June 6.—Representatives of all railroad labor unions, with the exception of the "big four" brotherhoods, were in Cincinnati today to attend the opening of a series of conferences during which the recent ruling of the United States railroad labor board reducing wages of railroad laborers
will be under discussion. B. M.
Jewell, president of the railroad department of the United States Federation of Labor, will preside.

Organizations whose chief executives or their representatives are in attendance are the blacksmiths, boiler makers, signal men,
machinists, electricians, clerks,
maintenance of way men, stationery engineers, telegraphers, car men and sheet metal workers.

It was declared that all rumors of a strike at this time were merely speculative.

The conference has no power to take a strike vote, but will merely advise the course of action.

To Take Strike Vote.

CINCINNATI, O., June 6.—A strike vote of approximately 1,200-000 railroad workers of the United States will be taken by the individual unions affected by the United States railroad labor board's wage reduction, recently ordered, and pending, it was declared at the conference of the union leaders here today.

The vote in each organization will be returnable within 30 days after the board announces a wage cut for that class of employees, the vote of the shopcrafts, whose reduction was ordered by the board today, being returnable June 30.

One Soldier Hurt, Many Are Injured In Truck Accident

(By the Associated Press)

BALTIMORE, June 6.—One soldier was instantly killed, two suffered injuries which physicians believe will result fatally, and seven others were less seriously hurt
when a truck carrying 10 soldiers from Camp Hollabird bound for Baltimore went over an embankment near Westminister, Md., today.
The dead man was Private Parent.

Private Herschner, who was reported killed immediately after the accident, and who was picked up unconscious, later regained his senses and physicians said later that he was not seriously injured.

College Campus

A reception is being planned for all students at the college who are members of or prefer the Methodist church. It will be held Friday evening at the church.

Plans are being made to develop a college band and orchestra for next year. Prof. A. L. Fentem, who organized the Ada high school band and saw it make rapid progress to become the second best in the state, will have charge of this work. He is conducting instrumental classes this summer. Bulletins have been posted of the instruments needed
for next fall.

Folk plays and games will be featured at the college gym this evening when Miss Anna Weaver
Jones will direct a number of plays for students. An invitation has been extended to all connected with the college to attend.

Smoking in the college administration and education buildings is forbidden, according to notices posted on the bulletin board. This special order was issued through respect for the large number of lady students, although it is never permitted, it was explained.

College grounds are closed at 9 o'clock each evening and no persons, students or citizens, will be permitted to stay on the campus
after this hour, orders posted today
indicate. This is done to keep students in their rooms and to prohibit prowling and loafing about the college grounds at night. A like order was adopted last summer.

Gilman Mackin, senior, and editor-in-chief of the Pesagi, East Central annual, left today for Guthrie where he took the final proofs of the book to the printers. He expects to have the books ready for delivery within a short time.

homa beginning in October, will specialize in dairying, poultry and hog raising and will also include agricultural exhibits from the A.
and A. college. Lectures by the various heads of the different departments of the College will be given en route. This action is taken in co-operation with the State Board of Agriculture, the A. and M. college,
and railway company.

From March first to May 20, 50
car loads of hogs are shipped by railers from Maricopa, Oklahoma, bringing to them the approximate sum of $95,000.00. It appears that hogs were doing a great deal in that vicinity toward lifting the burden of the farmers who experienced practically a total failure last year
with their cotton crop.

The above item calls our attention to a news story concerning Mr.
Baker, living near Allen, Oklahoma, and of his success with hogs and alfalfa. Mr. Baker is located on the Olivo and Cummings farm and is now feeding a car load of hogs for the market. The hogs are making exceptional growth on alfalfa and alfalfa combination far ahead of cotton.

A Holstein cow, Empress Wayne

Vaukhan of Stillwater, recently finished a year record and produced in 365 days, 26,658.3 pounds of milk and 707.58 pounds of butter
fat. This is by far the best record made by an Oklahoma Holstein cow and is especially creditable because the cow was fed on dry feed during the entire time of her test.

The Federal and State Crop Report, released June 2nd, pointed to a growing condition of cotton as of May 25 of 67 percent of normal, which is 10 points below the ten-
year average, and, with the exception of 1919 when it was 65 percent, the lowest since statehood. Hardly more than 50 percent of the crop was up by the 25th. This year there is the weevil menace following an open winter. Last year and the year before, the first appearance of the weevil was recorded in Bryan county on June 14, while this year
many large, thrifty, specimens were observed in the fields a month earlier and appeared to be ready to attack the tender buds even before the forming of the squares. J. A.

agriculture.

Produce Market Bulletin.
Chicago, June 3.—Movement of eggs in producing sections is normal for this season of the year, but the quality is showing more uneven-ness each week, due to weather conditions.

To obtain the highest market for eggs, producers should give careful attention to and are urged to follow the suggestions of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, which are:

1. Produce infertile eggs by removing the roosters from the flock
in the summer time.
2. Provide clean nests and keep eggs clean.
3. Do not wash eggs.
4. Gather the eggs twice daily
during the summer, to prevent them

from being heated by the hen.
5. Keep them in a cool, dry place,
away from flies.

6. Market them at least twice each week.

The movement of both live hens and broilers is on the increase. The demand for both, however, is good and conditions point to good values being paid, although as the new crop of broilers increases, both in quantity and size, the market will seek lower levels.

All indications are that the production of butter in the United States in the next few weeks will be the heaviest known.

The demand, however, is very good, both for current use and for storage purposes, and the prospects are for favorable market conditions.

A SMILE A DAY

Pome.
The hen that lays an egg will make
A fuss in shrilling tone;
But note how quietly a man
Will lay a cornerstone.

—Adam Brede in the Hastings,
Neb., Tribune.

Cabaret
A slam, a bang, a shriek, a crash
A roar, a rolling rumble,
A blare, a tear, a rip, a smash,
A screech, a growl, a grumble.

A bleat, a blatt, a snort, a puff
And a wail as gruesome as The Banshee's howl!—Yes! that's the stuff
That's served to us as Jazz.

A twist, a smale, a hug, a smirk,
A swing, a sway, a shiver,
A whirl, a wobble and a jerk,
A walk, a slide, a quiver,

A squeeze, a stamp, a rush, a thump
And then a deal of prancing,
A strangle hold, a break, a bump,
These go with Jazz as dancing.

Geddes Confers On Attack by Watson After Recent Tour

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador to the United States, with Senator Ricci, Italian ambassador, and other representatives of foreign powers in the United States who were criticized in the senate yesterday by Senator Watson, republican, Indiana, called at the state department today and conferred with Secretary Hughes.

The ambassador declined to state
the purpose of his conference, but it was intimated that the criticism of Senator Watson on some addresses made by the ambassador during a recent speaking trip would be discussed. State department officials prior to the British ambassador's call said the department had taken no official cognizance of Senator Watson's statements.

Girl Expelled From School for Cosmetic Habit Seeks Another

(By the Associated Press)

KNOBEL, Ark., June 6.—Miss Pearl Pugsley, 18 years old, who was prevented from attending school here because she "powdered her nose," is determined to obtain an education,
still persists in using cosmetics,
and has matriculated in the normal
college at Jonesboro, Ark.

The girl says she will enter school and probably continue her course and secure a teacher's certificate so that she may within a few years be at the head of some school in the state.

She firmly declares it is nobody's business if a girl desires to powder
her face moderately.

The local school board barred Miss Pugsley from school because she violated an order banning cosmetics.
